

Senior Class Pictures

Few things endure the passing of time as a person's Senior Class Pictures. They capture not only a time certain, but with today's expanded format, your pictures also speak to who the graduating senior is by personalizing the setting, the clothes and often the props, like a musical instrument, a piece of sporting equipment or a pet. We will work with you to capture the moment and the time in your life's passage.

Business Meeting Presentations

Carriage Hill Productions can help you prepare a Power Point presentation for your annual or business event. We can provide a host of services, including photography coverage, to meet your needs and to help your meetings be professional and successful.

For Your Home or Business

If you're ready to bring some drama to your home or office décor, Carriage Hill Productions has a significant library of breathtaking photographs, some with special computer effects, that will bring beauty and conversation wherever you choose to display them.

After spending more than thirty years behind the camera lens, capturing people and nature at their best, Ashton E. Welch, and his wife Carol have launched Carriage Hill Productions, which they intend to be an outlet for their creative endeavors. In addition to his photographs, with grand as well as simple shots of scenery in New Hampshire and most recently in Montana, Ashton has been doing professional, and often touching, computerized slide shows that have added richly to a number of events including wedding receptions, special award ceremonies, birthdays and anniversaries. Call today to make an appointment to discuss your upcoming event and how we can help.
